A Day on the Lake – KMM-INL-001 - Full day

Inle Lake in southern Shan State is a vast natural lake surrounded by traditional Shan villages. On the lake itself the Intha people have been living for many centuries in wooden houses built entirely on stilts. Today you will travel by private motorboat around the lake to discover its natural beauty, visiting floating gardens, observing the famous leg rowers in action and enjoying tea at a local family's home. On and around the lake traditional markets are held in different villages according to a five-day rotating schedule, and on this day you will visit a colorful market frequented by Shan and Pa'O people living nearby. There will also be a chance to see a local workshop where the Burmese cheroot cigars are made. You will make a stop at Phaung Daw U Pagoda, a famous pilgrimage site that is home to five golden Buddha statues. A home-cooked lunch will be served to you during the day at the home of an Intha family, who will be happy to welcome you to their beautiful house on the lake. If time permits, you can also visit a local silk weaving factory. This tour includes a contribution to local charity initiatives.

MEALS: B L

You start your journey with a boat ride to Indein village, home of the Indein Pagoda, a temple with an impressive collection of stupas, southwest of Inle Lake. You then take a 1.5-hour bike ride to Than Htaung village and walk to a local monastery where you can stop to chat with the temple monks. Afterwards you continue, either by boat or bike – depending on the season and the water levels – to Yay Mae Pin village where you visit an areca nut plantation. For the last part of the tour, you head by boat to Khaung Daing, a little village on the northwest edge of the lake that is well off the regular tourist trail, and features some fascinating cottage industries. Here you stop for a delicious lunch in a local restaurant and then ride to Nyaungshwe town. Depending on where you are staying, you then return by bike or boat to your hotel.
