

A Taste of Vientiane

Vientiane

Relish in the unique aromas, fragrance, tastes and textures that make Lao food so delectable in this private home cooking class.

The flavours of Lao food are unique and are very typical of the fresh herbs, spices and produce grown throughout the country. Start the morning with a visit to a local coffee shop and taste the brew of local coffee beans. You will then head to meet your local family at their home and learn all about the sauces, pastes and basics that are the heart of local cuisine. After preparing and cooking some delectable dishes you will get to enjoy the very local lunch that you just prepared.
