

Canals, Culture & Cocktails

Bangkok

Dive into a journey to uncover traditional Thai culture cruising by longtail boat before soaking up an atmospheric sunset across the Chao Phraya River.

Set off on an adventurous longtail, crisscross the khlongs (canals), pass community temples and glimpse the unfolding action along the edge of the waterway. Explore Baan Silapin (Artist House) located in a centuries old traditional teak family home and admire the photography and artwork. Continue on to Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn) one of the best-known temples in Thailand and bid farewell to your longtail. Afterwards venture into a local riverside bar, enjoy a local cocktail and witness the sun set across this River of Kings.
