

Chakrabongse Villas

Bangkok

Nestled in the heart of Old Bangkok on the banks of the Chao Phraya River, Chakrabongse Villas is the ideal place to stay for those travelers wishing to experience the lifestyle of a bygone era. Originally built in 1908 for a member of the Thai Royal family, guest rooms are located in two teak wooden buildings beautifully restored and reimagined from their former time as staff quarters.

Why we like it

- Breathtaking views of Wat Arun on the opposite side of the river
- Four luxury suites and three rooms are individually designed and decorated
- Tropical gardens and pool provide the ideal place to relax and unwind
- Restaurant overlooking the river showcases classic Royal Thai cuisine
- Curated experiences from therapeutic massages to bespoke speedboat journeys

Khiri Tip

Step inside the Museum Siam, it's opposite the entrance of Chakrabongse Villas. This is a fun and interactive museum that provides insight into what is "Thainess"
