

Cycle Rural Backroads

Chiang Mai

Pedal through the countryside, along quiet backroads, see rural landscapes, and gain insight into the people of Northern Thailand.

Ride beside the banks of the Ping River, avoiding traffic, travel on small country roads pass fruit orchards and experience rural Thailand. Meander through villages, explore temple ruins and make frequent stops along the way. Before returning to the city, cross a little bridge to a former leper colony situated on its own island and listen to stories of the early missionaries' work.

Total ride is approx. 25 kms. Fitness level: Moderate
