

Koh Kret Island Explorer

Bangkok

Explore the tiny man made island of Koh Kret and discover the culture and culinary delights of the ethnic minority Mon.

Step out with your knowledgeable guide to Nonthaburi pier and board a rocket boat to the island rising up between two bends in the Chao Phraya River. Grab a cycle and pedal past quaint teak cottages, impressive Buddhist temples, and feel the calmness of the rural landscape. Meet Mon people, indigenous to Burma, and watch these famed potters create jugs, bowls and plates using generations old technique before trying your hand to create your own masterpiece. Explore the local food market and indulge in some delicious tasty and unique to the island sweets before returning to Bangkok.
