

River and Island Biking Tour

Yangon

Start your morning with bike gears intro at Uncharted Horizons for cycling adventure through the countryside cross over the river out of city.

This tour begins early at 7.30 am with you making your own way to Uncharted Horizons Myanmar office located at No. 109, 49th Street, Middle Block, Botataung Township. You then choose your bike and helmet and have a short introduction to the bike's gears, etc. You first head for Pansodan Jetty, where you take the ferry and cross the Yangon River to Dala Township, a largely rural and undeveloped part of the city on the south side of the river. Cycling west towards Twante, you arrive in Pyawkalay village where you stop at a local teashop for refreshments. You then board a small ferry and cross the Twante Canal to the completely car-free Kanaungto River Island – making it a perfect place to explore by bike!
