

Taste of Chinatown

Bangkok

Enjoy a mouth-watering exploration of Bangkok's 200-year-old Chinatown and feast on a selection of mouth watering street food.

Set off with your passionate foodie for a walk through a labyrinth of lanes to a riverside bar. Drink in the sunset views over the Chao Phraya River with a cocktail in hand and plan your street food journey. Meander past the myriad of food stalls, be introduced to all kinds of local dishes from steamed rice cakes, stuffed seafood dumplings and bowls of noodles with tantalizing sauces. Leave room for sweets, maybe a shaved ice dessert topped with water chestnuts, lotus roots and sweetened yam. Finish with a cocktail at an open-air bar with memories of an unforgettable foodie adventure.
