

A Day on the Lake

Inle Lake

Memorable experience about Intha lifestyle and family run workshops explored by boat and delightful lunch served at local house.

Inle Lake in southern Shan State is a vast natural lake surrounded by traditional Shan villages. On the lake itself the Intha people have been living for many centuries in wooden houses built entirely on stilts. Today you will travel by private motorboat around the lake to discover its natural beauty, visiting floating gardens, observing the famous leg rowers in action and enjoying tea at a local family's home. On and around the lake traditional markets are held in different villages according to a five-day rotating schedule, and on this day you will visit a colorful market frequented by Shan and Pa'O people living nearby. There will also be a chance to see a local workshop where the Burmese cheroot cigars are
