

Bike Adventure across the Irrawaddy River

Bagan

It's an ideal excursion for people who love the adventure by bike to the rural villages across the river through the beautiful dry zone scenery.

Today you enjoy some cycling to villages across the Irrawaddy River from Old Bagan. Your first stop after leaving your hotel is the Z-Craft jetty in Old Bagan where a busy morning market can be found selling fresh vegetables brought in boats from farming communities across the river. After perusing this bustling market you clamber on-board a boat with our bikes and ride to Se Lan village on the other side of the river where you spend some time cycling through the vegetable fields observing the rural scenery and people going about their daily business. You then cycle to Myitchay village and visit some cotton-weaving and can/bamboo workshops, before stopping for lunch at a local restaurant. After the
