

Discover Pak Ou Caves

Luang Prabang

Travel up the mighty Mekong river to the fascinating Pak Ou caves, making stops at some fascinating villages along the way.

Pak Ou caves are located 28 klm north of Luang Prabang and are a mystical pilgrimage site perched high above the Mekong river. You will start your journey by road to some some truly unique villages located just out of town, you will visit a weaving village and a paper making village. You will then board a long tail boat to Pak Ou caves. As you enter the dark caves you will start to see some of the serene Buddha figures, some that have been inlaid with semi-precious stones. The caves have remained undisturbed and intact. Enjoy a delightful cruise with some local snacks as you head back down the Mekong and into Luang Prabang.
