Engage with WFFT Founder

Hua Hin

Engage with Edwin Wiek, the founder and director of Wildlife Friends Foundation of Thailand (WFFT) and listen to stories about the foundation's projects in Thailand.

Born in the Netherlands, Edwin Wiek moved to Asia in 1989, establishing his fashion business until a car accident forced him to change direction and follow his childhood dream of setting up an animal rights movement in Thailand. With his slogan "The only difference between a dream and a target, is the existence of a plan" he founded the WFFT in 2001 with the help of local people. Hear tales of the initial struggles faced by the foundation and seeing first-hand how they provide veterinary assistance to sick or injured animals, as well as how they rehabilitate captive wild animals.
