

KAMPOT EXPLORER

Kampot

Discover the charming coastal town and surrounding area of Kampot, home to some stunning French colonial architecture and tree lined boulevards.

Take a beautiful ride outside of Kampot to the enchanting caves of Kampong Trach also known as the swimming caves, then onto the mysterious caves of Phnom Chhnork, used by Buddhist monks in ancient times but also as a hideout during the Khmer Rouge regime. The Kampot region is famous for the agriculture of pepper and salt and you will visit both the incredible salt flats as well as a fascinating pepper plantation. In the afternoon take in a short walking tour in the heart of Kampot and along the river where you will be charmed by some stunning examples of some of the best preserved and restored French architecture and shop houses.
