

Trek and discover tea experience and Danu traditional home cooked lunch

Kalaw

An active tour start with a soft trekking through the Pine forest and seasonal plantation then meet with ethnic tribes before taking fantastic train ride.

Start the trekking from Kalaw early in the morning 08:00. The trekking takes about 3 hours passing through the Pine forest and seasonal plantation and chance to meet Danu and Taung Yoe tribes in the fields. We arrive Myinmahti village at 11:00 where we explore the Myinmahti natural cave about 30 minutes. A packed lunch will serve near the cave before we transfer to Aung Ban train station for a train ride to Heho (1.5 hours approximately). If time permits, we visit Shan umbrella making in Heho before we drive to your hotel in Inle Lake (1 hr away).
