

Organic Farm Cooking Workshop

Khao Sok

Choose your own ingredients from the garden before preparing a selection of Thai dishes which you later enjoy.

Visit our local partner's Organic Farm and learn how to cook several traditional Thai dishes using the freshly picked produce. Guided by the experienced chefs, try your hand at creating coconut milk, blending your own curry paste and even how to boil rice in bamboo. After mastering these skills and techniques, sit down in the picturesque surroundings to savor the fruits of your labour.
