

Paddling by Kayak to Intha Villages on Inle Lake

Inle Lake

Light-weight kayaks are ready for you to start paddling on the lake for a trip to rural area and weaving village on stilts and learn more about Intha.

Real adventure is waiting as we bring you this morning to the starting point of a fascinating trip by kayak to rural villages on Inle Lake. Depending on the location of your hotel, a short transfer by motorboat over the lake will bring you to In Phaw Khone, the famous weaving village on stilts belonging to the Intha people. Light-weight kayaks are ready for you to start paddling on the lake (2 persons per kayak) for a trip to rural areas few outsiders have had the opportunity to visit. After about an hour of paddling you stop in a village to learn more about the Intha people and their local food production. You then continue your journey by kayak, before stopping to have lunch at the home of
