

Toraja Cultural Tour

Toraja - Sulawesi

A trip into the heart of this ancient culture. See Toraja's spectacular burial sites, villages and markets.

Visit Ke'te Kesu, a small village well known for its original Tongkonan houses, beautiful wood carvings and typical Toraja paintings – a UNESCO World Heritage site. Then a short walk in the beautiful scenery of Karuaya. In the afternoon, visit Kambira and nearby Tampang Allo to explore the different ways the Toraja bury their dead. Continue on to the curious cave of Londa, a burial sight where you can still see the bones of the deceased dating back centuries. You then head for Lemo where graves sights are carved out of the stone cliff and wooden effigies of the dead gaze down from little balconies.
