

Uncover Bang Rak Neighborhood on Foot

Bangkok

Set out on walking tour to discover Bang Rak, a melting pot of traditional shophouses, creative art spaces, mosques and Hindu temples.

Soak up the atmosphere, marvel at the various architectural styles as you listen to stories shared by your expert insider. Peek into the lifestyle of a middle-class family from nearly hundred years ago at the Bangkokian Museum. Admire the diverse range of street art commissioned during an urban art festival several years back. Step inside Warehouse 30, an art, lifestyle and creative space. Sample some of the amazing street food at family run carts or pop into one of the recently opened new breed of designer cafes. If time allows the 100+ year old Neilson Hays Library can be visited as well.
