

Engage with Koen, the Walking Artist

Bangkok

Meet Koen Olie, originally from Holland, and engage in colorful conversations about art and travel so inseparable to his current life as a resident Bangkokian.

Join Koen for a wonderful morning of conversation, exploration and coffee and hear how the city has changed over the past 35 years. Discover how after years of adventurous travel he ended up in Thailand drawing cartoons, with many of his works appearing in Thai magazines, newspapers and in solo exhibitions. Although semi-retired he still draws, albeit just for fun. Explore parts of Bangkok on foot and local transport and revisit some of the places that were so inspirational to his early years in the city Koen surely has a few stories to tell, a few places to discover so join him on his next adventure.
